“Love”

1.

From the man of your dreams...
To the woman of mine.
I get lost in your eyes.
Every. Single. Time...

2.

From day-break...
To sun set, i write you this poem...
so you don't forget.
I'll love you in the summer...
I'll love you in the fall...
I'll hold you close in the winter...
And in the spring ill do all.

3.

From when the flowers bloom...
From when the tree colors change...
I'll love you all seasons, my feelings wont change.

4.

I write this poem, enamored with emotion.
With a love so deep, deeper than any ocean,
So vast i might stray, yet so familiar i must stay.
You're way of being, is what drew me close.
from the man of your dreams to the woman of mine, i find myself drawn to you, each and, every time.
