

Robert W. King Poetry Award

Sponsored by the Colorado Poets Center, the Robert W. King Award for Poetry provides a $150 award to a Colorado high school student for a winning poem. The poet's name, school, teacher who sponsored the poem, and the winning poem are published on the Colorado Poets Center website (<https://coloradopoetscenter.org/>). The theme for the 2020 poetry awards is Important Moments, Experiences or Events. We are looking for poems that describe experiences that impacted one's life in some way. A poem can be about a happy moment tied to a family or community celebration, for example, or an experience that made you sad. The poem, "Examination," by Robert W. King, on the Colorado Poets Center website, describes the feelings the poet had while his father was having a medical test.

All poetry submissions must be original work, sponsored by a high school teacher and submitted as a word document. The maximum length for each poem is two pages. Authors may submit up to three poems. Poems may have been published previously in high school publications.
